JOHNSTON AT BAY RIDGE Young Californian Will Play in N. Y. State Championships.

Miles S. Charlock, referee of the New York State championship lawn tennis tournament, announced vesterday that the drawing for the singles would be made this afternoon at the Crescent Boston Athletic Club, at Bay Ridge. The com- Chicago mittee will make the draw according to the method prescribed by the United of Benz. States National Association, and all of the players entered and others interested are requested to be present. Charlock stated that under no circumstances would any change be made in the draw after it had once been made. William Johnston, the young player from California, who is said to be the prototype of Maurice E. McLoughlin, is wlated for the singles and doubles. In the latter event he will be partnered by one of the men from the Pacific Coast, several of whom have entered the tournsment. The balance of the list, according to Charlock, will include all of the stars now in this section of the country.

Throughout the tournament especial attention will be devoted to the observance f the service otherwise popularly knows as the foot fault rule. McLoughlin is the two former champions, are to compete. The committee includes Leonard B. Brooks, Charles M. Bull, jr., William A. Campbell, Henry C. Martin, Robert J. Wall, H. E. McGowan, R. L. Cerero, Otto W. Heinigke, A. R. Neill, Harold Rowe
